

HOME INFORMATION PACK

Property Details Questionnaire

NOTE

This form must be read in conjunction with the Property Information Questionnaire provided by the seller which relates to the period during which the seller has owned the property. The buyer's conveyancer will need this information before the buyer can exchange contracts.

This form provides detailed information in relation to a number of issues. Some questions deal with the seller's knowledge of the history of the property before the seller owned it

The document is authorised to be included in the Home Information Pack relating to this Property

This document deals with the history of the property and is intended to support the information provided in the HIP as detailed in the Property Information Questionnaire (PIQ). The PIQ is designed to cover the information relating to the seller's period of ownership.

This form is intended to provide the buyer with any information that may be available to not just limited to the period of your ownership.

Property Details Questionnaire

IMPORTANT NOTE TO SELLERS – PLEASE READ

Please take care with your answers

Please answer all questions honestly and accurately. The form is provided to the buyer's conveyancer. It will be seen by the buyer who is entitled to rely on the information in deciding whether to buy the property, so it is important that the answers are correct. Incorrect or incomplete information given to the buyer direct, through us or through your selling agent or even mentioned to the buyer in conversation may mean that the buyer can claim compensation from you and may entitle the buyer not to complete.

Many of the questions only require you tick the correct answer. If necessary, please give more detailed answers on a separate sheet of paper. The answers should be given only by those named on the deeds of the property. If there is more than one of you, you should prepare the answers together and all sign. This form is designed to capture your knowledge of the property so if you do not know the answer to any question it is OK to say so.

Condition of property

The buyer should seek independent advice in relation to the condition of the property and may instruct a surveyor. Please do not give the buyer your views on the condition of the property.

Changes to these answers

It is important that if anything changes after you complete this form but before the sale is completed you tell us immediately. Please pass to us any notices you have received which affect the property, including any notices which arrive at any time before completion of your sale. If you have a tenant, tell us immediately if there is any change in the arrangement but do nothing without asking us first.

Supporting documents

Please let us have any letters, agreements or other documents which relate to these questions. If you know of any which you are not supplying with these answers, please tell us about them.

Fixtures and fittings

Please kindly complete and return the Fixtures, Fittings and Contents Section. It is an important document which will form part of the contract between you and the buyer. Unless you mark clearly on it the items which you wish to remove, they will be included in the sale and you will not be able to take them with you when you move. If you wish to delay the completion of the Fixtures, Fittings and Contents Form until you have a prospective buyer and have agreed the price, please detach this section of the Form and send under separate cover.
